

PhilDHRRA

Philippine Partnership for the Development of Human Resources in Rural Areas

WE ARE HIRING

Capacity Development Officer

- Graduate of courses related to social and political academic disciplines and background on social work, community development, public administration, community/area planning, development studies, political science, development communication.
- Has knowledge and skills in developing training modules and courses intended for the non-government and government sectors.
- At least 3-5 year experience in doing training and capacity building activities involving government and non-government sectors.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills including technical report writing skills.
- Advance knowledge in MS Office Application.

Advocacy Officer

- Graduate of courses related to social and political academic disciplines and background on social work, community development, public administration, community/area planning, development studies, political science, development communication.
- Has knowledge and skills in preparing policy research, monitor policy formulation, prepares issue analysis, recommends issue advocacy, convenes consultations/discussion groups, produces press releases on issue analysis for nation/region-wide release to local and national print media, networking and external linkaging.
- At least 3-5 year experience in doing advocacy activities involving government and non-government sectors.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills including technical report writing skills.
- Advance knowledge in MS Office Application.

To apply, please send application letter and curriculum vitae not later than 15 August 2017 via email at national@phildhrra.net